PRESENTATION

Presentation of NAHRO award for Jardines Del Monte by Chair Styles:

Chair Styles presented the NAHRO Award of Merit for Program Innovation and Community Revitalization for Jardines Del Monte to the Executive Director, Jim Nakashima. The Board thanked Pat Dwire, Senior Community Development Planner, for the good job in submitting the application for the award.

Chair Styles reported on his trip to the NAHRO Conference in Tampa, Florida. He stated that partnerships will play an important part of housing authorities’ successes for the future. He further reported that certification training for Commissioners was approved at the conference, but the final product has not been completed.

COMMENTS FROM THE PUBLIC:

Stanley Reiger, Rippling River resident, wanted it to be on record that he attended tonight’s Board meeting.

Mr. Nakashima commented not one finding was found in the HUD inspection of Pueblo Del Mar Community Center and files; the inspector commented it was one of the finest housing authorities she has seen and an example of collaborative efforts. He further commented that Dr. Wayne Clark and Mr. Bob Egnew will be presenting a paper on the success of the Pueblo Del Mar Program.

INFORMATION

Commissioner Stewart requested agenda item C be pulled in order to provide an update regarding Rippling River to Mr. Stanley Reiger.

C. Status Report: Monthly Development Report:

Ms. Warren reported that an update was provided to Ms. Billek and Ms. Waymire for the residents’ meeting. Staff has met with the residents about four times to talk about unit design and site selection; the architect is currently working on the design of the community room which will be discussed at the meeting next week. Staff also will be forwarding a housing cooperation law agreement to the Board of Supervisors and others for their cooperation in the redevelopment at the airport. Currently 56% of the residents have signed up to say they concur with the airport as a location. Ms. Warren noted that HACM is also on the Land Use Advisory Committee’s agenda for September 8th to provide a Rippling River update. Mr. Nakashima reiterated that the Board of Commissioners meetings are public and open meetings. Chair Styles thanked Mr. Reiger for attending tonight’s meeting and requested a copy of Ms. Warren’s report be provided to Mr. Reiger. Mr. Reiger thanked the Board and stated he attended the meeting for various reasons and the update on Rippling River was a plus.
